GOOD REASONS

„OUR WORLD REVOLVES
AROUND YOU!“
ANITA GÖDIKER

GENF, RUE DE LA CORRATERIE

The iconic banking jewel is as straightforward as it is playful, radiating splendor as well as graceful elegance. Historical balconies allow access to Rue de la Corraterie from every office. Inside, after the renovation in 2022, simple reduction meets contemporary functionality.

The interior design is never based on a uniform concept that is geared towards recognition. With feeling and respect for the location, history, present and future, Anita Gödiker creates a lot of space for agile, concentrated work with her unmistakable signature and focuses on people. The design of the noble, linear furniture will combine the opulent bank building with the reducedness of the present: haptics, acoustics, light and color together form a quiet body of sound for the best well-being. The workplace becomes a matter of casual luxury lifestyle.

WHEN THE AGONY OF CHOICE HAS GOOD REASONS...

...YOU WILL RECOGNIZE A DECISION MAKER BY THE CHOICE OF HIS OFFICE.

1. Real expertise: Satellite Office has been managed by the owner for over 20 years, personally and independent. You benefit from many years of experience and an immense business network of various decision-makers.
2. Traction: Strong teams with multilingual, excellently trained specialists provide service and allow decision-makers to focus on their core business: at the front desk, as an office assistant, with planning and implementation of meetings – always on high-end-level.
3. Location, location, location: the best location in the city is always good for your reputation and image. The main entrance of our Satellite Office is easy to find - day and night. Your company logo is visible and directly presented in the main foyer.
4. Thriving business: our workspaces, a place for concentration, meetings with results and productivity. A place for Deep Work, deciders who appreciate peace and quality of life and style.
5. Highest quality only- take a close look: whether interior design, furniture, cleanliness, hygiene, employees, or customers. Where the bests meet the best at best price – your own brand becomes a winner.
